Admission to the Psychology BA/BGS Major

The requirements for admission to the major in Psychology are distinct and different from the requirements for graduation with a major in Psychology.

In order to apply to the major, students will be invited via an academic notice in their KYOU Portal to a Psychology Admission Orientation in their application term (semester in which student had enrolled in the minimum number of required courses to declare a major).

Students must have a 2.5 or greater GPA for the group of courses listed below:

- PSYC 102: Orientation Seminar Psychology
- PSYC 104/105: General Psychology
- PSYC 200/201: Research Methods in Psychology
  OR
  PSYC 210/211: Statistics Psychological Research
- One Psychology Core:
  - PSYC 318/319: Cognitive Psychology
  - PSYC 333/334: Child Development
  - PSYC 350/351: Abnormal Psychology
  - PSYC 360/361: Social Psychology
  - PSYC 370/371: Behavioral Neuroscience
  - PSYC 375: Cognitive Neuroscience
  - PSYC 380/381: Clinical Neuroscience

Students must sign a Declaration Intent Form by attending a Psychology Admission Orientation during their application term. All the above courses completed at the time of application will be calculated into the admission GPA. University Course Repeat Policy will apply.

All applicants who meet the above requirements will be admitted.
